

VOCATIONS

A vocation is more than a job or career. Vocations include our callings, responsibilities, and labors before God in our different stations and stages of life as sons and daughters, spouses, parents, providers, citizens, and church members. The College seeks to prepare students for faithful servant leadership in all of their God given callings through all stages of life for the glory of God and the advance of His Kingdom.